Music: Geistliche Kirchengesang, 1623

arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906

The musical score is written for a four-part vocal choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in the key of D major (two sharps) and 3/4 time. The score is divided into four systems. The first system contains the first two verses of the hymn. The second system contains the third and fourth verses. The third system contains the fifth and sixth verses. The fourth system contains the seventh and eighth verses. The piano accompaniment is written in a simple, homophonic style, supporting the vocal lines. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves, and the piano part is written on a grand staff (treble and bass clef). The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines. The lyrics are in German, and the title is in English. The score is a full page of music, with a clear and legible layout.
