

Come, ye thankful people

Text: Henry Alford, 1844

Music: George J. Elvey, 1858

ST. GEORGE'S WINDSOR 77.77 D

The musical score is written for a single voice part on a treble clef staff. The key signature is D major (two sharps: F# and C#), and the time signature is 2/2. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with some half notes. The lyrics are printed below the staff, with two verses indicated by the numbers 1 and 2. The first verse ends with a double bar line, and the second verse continues the melody. The lyrics are: 1 Come, ye thank-ful peo-ple, come, raise a song of har-vest home: 2 All the world is but a field, giv-en for a fruit-ful yield; fruit and crops are gath-ered in, safe be-fore the storms be-gin; wheat and tares to-geth-er sown, here for joy or sor-row grown: God, our Mak-er, will pro-vide for our needs to be sup-plied; first the blade, and then the ear, then the full corn shall ap-pear; come to God's own tem-ple, come, raise a song of har-vest home. God of har-vest, grant that we whole-some grain and pure may be.

1 Come, ye thank-ful peo-ple, come, raise a song of har-vest home:
2 All the world is but a field, giv-en for a fruit-ful yield;
fruit and crops are gath-ered in, safe be-fore the storms be-gin;
wheat and tares to-geth-er sown, here for joy or sor-row grown:
God, our Mak-er, will pro-vide for our needs to be sup-plied;
first the blade, and then the ear, then the full corn shall ap-pear;
come to God's own tem-ple, come, raise a song of har-vest home.
God of har-vest, grant that we whole-some grain and pure may be.
