

We plow the fields and scatter

Text: Matthias Claudius, 1782
tr. Jane M. Campbell, 1861, alt.
WIR PFLÜGEN 76.76 D with refrain

Music: Johann A. P. Schulz, 1800

1 We plow the fields and scat - ter the good seed on the land,
2 You on - ly are the Mak - er of all things near and far.
3 We thank you, then, Cre - a - tor, for all things bright and good,

but it is fed and wa - tered by God's al - might - y hand.
You paint the way - side flow - er, you light the eve - ning star.
the seed - time, and the har - vest, our life, our health, our food.

God sends the snow in win - ter, the warmth to swell the grain,
The winds and waves o - bey you, by you the birds are fed;
Ac - cept the gifts we of - fer for all your love im - parts, the breez - es, and the sun - shine, and soft re - fresh - ing rain.

much more to us, your chil - dren, you give our da - ly bread.
and what you most would wel - come: our hum - ble thank - ful hearts.

All good gifts a - round us are sent from heav'n a - bove.

The musical score is written for two staves, Treble and Bass, in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps: F# and C#). The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, with some rests. The lyrics are placed below the notes. The phrase 'for all' is connected by a slur, and 'your love.' is also connected by a slur. The score ends with a double bar line.

We thank you, God, we thank you, God, for all your love.
