Music: Edmund S. Lorenz, Notes of Triumph: for the Sunday School, 1886

The musical score is written on a single staff in treble clef, with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 2/2 time signature. The melody consists of quarter and half notes, with a final double bar line. The lyrics are printed below the staff, with three numbered verses. The first verse is '1 Come, let us all unite to sing, God is love. Let heav'n and earth their'. The second verse is '2 O tell to earth's remotest bound, God is love. In Christ we have re-'. The third verse is '3 How happy is our portion here, God is love. His promises our'. The lyrics continue on the next line: 'praises bring, God is love. Let every soul from sin awake,'. The next line is 'demp-tion found, God is love. His blood has washed our sins away,'. The next line is 'spirits cheer, God is love. He is our sun and shield by day,'. The next line is 'let every heart sweet music make, and sing with us for Jesus' sake, for God is'. The next line is 'his Spirit turned our night to day, and now we can rejoice to say that God is'. The next line is 'our help, our hope, our strength and stay; he will be with us all the way, our God is'. The next line is 'love. God is love! God is love! Come, let us all unite to sing that God is love!'. The next line is 'love.'. The final line is 'love.'.
