

Come, thou long-expected Jesus

Text: Charles Wesley, 1744

Music: Rowland H. Prichard ca. 1830

HYFRYDOL 87.87 D

arr. Ralph Vaughn Williams, 1906

The musical score is written for a piano and voice. It features a treble and bass staff with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 3/4 time signature. The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing harmonic support. The lyrics are written below the staff, with two verses of text. Chord symbols are placed above the staff to indicate the harmonic structure. The score is divided into four systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system includes the first two lines of the first verse. The second system includes the next two lines of the first verse. The third system includes the next two lines of the first verse. The fourth system includes the final two lines of the first verse. The lyrics are: 1 Come, thou long - ex - pect - ed Je - sus! born to set thy peo - ple free, 2 Born thy peo - ple to de - liv - er, born a child, and yet a King, from our fears and sins re - lease us, let us find our rest in thee. born to reign in us for - ev - er, now thy gra - cious king - dom bring. Is - rael's strength and con - so - la - tion, hope of all the earth thou art, By thine own e - ter - nal Spir - it, rule in all our hearts a - lone. dear de - sire of ev - 'ry na - tion, joy of ev - 'ry long - ing heart.
