

Love divine, all loves excelling

Text: Charles Wesley, 1747

Music: Rowland H. Prichard ca. 1830

HYFRYDOL 87.87 D

arr. Ralph Vaughn Williams, 1906

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in 3/4 time, with a key signature of two flats (Bb and Eb). The score is divided into four systems, each with a vocal staff and a piano accompaniment staff. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves. The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal parts. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines. The lyrics are in English and are arranged in four lines, corresponding to the four parts of the choir. The score is a modern arrangement by Ralph Vaughn Williams, based on the original by Rowland H. Prichard.
