

O God, in restless living

Text: Harry Emerson Fosdick, 1931

Music: Edward F. Rimbault, 1867

RUTHERFORD 76.76.76.75

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in 2/2 time, with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with some measures containing rests. The lyrics are written below the staff, with line numbers 1 through 4 indicating different verses. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at various points, indicating the harmonic accompaniment. The score is divided into four systems, each with a new line of lyrics. The first system has a line number 1, and the subsequent systems have line numbers 2, 3, and 4. The lyrics are: 1 O God in rest - less liv - ing we lose our spir - it's peace. 2 Teach us, be - yond our striv - ing, the rich re - wards of rest 3 Re - cep - tive make our spir - its, our need is to be still. 4 We grow not wise by strug - gling, we gain but things by strain. Calm our un - wise con - fu - sion, bid thou our clam - or cease. Who does not live se - rene - ly is nev - er deep - ly bless'd. As dawn fades flick - 'ring can - dle, so dim our anx - ious will. We cease to wa - ter gar - dens when comes thy plen - teous rain. Let anx - ious hearts grow qui - et, like pools at eve - ning still, O tran - quil, ra - diant Sun - light, bring thou our lives to flow'r, Re - veal thy ra - diance through us, thine am - ple strength re - lease. O, beau - ti - fy our spir - its in rest - ful - ness from strife, till thy re - flect - ed heav - ens all our spir - its fill less wea - ried with our ef - fort, more a - ware of pow'r. Not ours, but thine the tri - umph in the pow'r of peace. en - rich our souls in se - cret with a - bun - dant life.
