 1 O God in rest - less liv - ing we lose our spir - it's peace.

 2 Teach us, be - yond our striv - ing, the rich re - wards of rest

 3 Re - cep - tive make our spir - its, our need is to be still.

 4 We grow not wise by strug - gling, we gain but things by strain.

 Calm our un - wise con - fu - sion, bid thou our clam - or cease.

 Who does not live se - rene - ly is nev - er deep - ly bless'd.

 As dawn fades flick - 'ring can - dle, so dim our anx - ious will.

 We cease to wa - ter gar - dens when comes thy plen - teous rain.

 Let anx - ious hearts grow qui - et, like pools at eve - ning still,

 O tran - quil, ra - diant Sun - light, bring thou our lives to flow'r,

 Re - veal thy ra - diance through us, thine am - ple strength re - lease.

 O, beau - ti - fy our spir - its in rest - ful - ness from strife, till thy re - flect - ed heav - ens all our spir - its fill less wea - ried with our ef - fort, more a - ware of pow'r.

 Not ours, but thine the tri - umph in the pow'r of peace.

 en - rich our souls in se - cret with a - bun - dant life.
