The musical score is written for a single melodic line in G major, 12/8 time. It consists of four systems of music, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (F major). The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, often beamed in groups of three. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at the beginning of each measure. The lyrics are written below the staff, with three verses of text provided for each line of music. The first verse is numbered '1', the second '2', and the third '3'. The music concludes with a double bar line.
