

Once to every soul and nation

*But the soul is still oracular; amid the market's din,
List the ominous stern whisper from the Delphic cave within,— “They enslave their children's children who make compromise with sin”*

Text: James Russell Lowell, 1845

Music: Thomas John Williams, 1890

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, 12/8 time, with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, often beamed in groups of three. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at the beginning of each measure. The lyrics are arranged in four systems, with three verses of text aligned under the notes. The first system includes a first line of text with three numbered verses. The second system continues the text. The third system begins with 'Then to' and continues. The fourth system concludes the text with 'ere her cause bring fame and prof - it, and 'tis prosp-'rous to be just; nor at - tempt the fu - ture's por - tal with the past's blood - rus - ted key. till the mul - ti - tude make vir - tue of the faith they had de - nied.'
