

The day you gave us, Lord

Text: John Ellerton, 1870

Music: Clement C. Scholefield, 1874

ST. CLEMENT 98.98

The musical score is written for a single voice part in treble clef, with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 3/4 time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with many notes beamed together in groups of four or six. The lyrics are arranged in four systems, each corresponding to a line of the melody. The first system has four numbered parts (1-4) that branch out from the first line. The second system continues the melody with lyrics. The third system continues the melody with lyrics. The fourth system continues the melody with lyrics. The score ends with a double bar line.

1 The day you gave us, Lord, is end - ed;
2 We thank you that your church, un - sleep - ing
3 As o - ver con - ti - nent and is - land
4 So be it, Lord, your throne shall nev - er,
the dark - ness falls at your re - quest.
while earth rolls on - ward in - to light,
each dawn leads on an - oth - er day,
like earth's proud king - doms pass a - way.
To you our morn - ing hymns as - cend - ed;
through all the world its watch is keep - ing,
the voice of prayer is nev - er si - lent,
Your king - dom stands and grows for - ev - er,
your praise shall sanc - ti - fy our rest.
and nev - er rests by day or night.
nor do the prais - es die a - way.
un - til there dawns your glo - rious day.
