The first system of the musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with some chords. The lyrics are written below the melody.

'Tis a gift to be sim-ple, 'tis a gift to be free, 'tis a gift to come down where we ought to be.

The second system of the musical score continues the melody and bass line from the first system. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the melody.

And when we find our - selves in the place just right 'twill be in the val - ley of love and de - light.

This musical system consists of a treble and a bass staff, both in G major (one sharp). The treble staff contains a melody with a slur over the first two notes. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

When true sim - pli-ci - ty is gained, to bow and to bend we will not be a-shamed;

This musical system continues with the same treble and bass staves. The treble staff features a more active melody with many eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are aligned with the notes. The bass staff continues with a steady accompaniment.

to turn, turn, will be our de-light, till by turn-ing, turn-ing we come round right.
