

We plow the fields and scatter

Text: Matthias Claudius, 1782
tr. Jane M. Campbell, 1861, alt.
WIR PFLÜGEN 76.76 D with refrain

Music: Johann A. P. Schulz, 1800

The musical score is written for a single voice part on a treble clef staff. The key signature is D major (two sharps: F# and C#), and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a mix of quarter, eighth, and half notes. The lyrics are printed below the staff, with line numbers 1 through 6 indicating the start of each line of text. The text is in English and is a translation of a German hymn. The score includes a refrain at the end, marked by a double bar line. The lyrics are: 1 We plow the fields and scat - ter the good seed on the land, 2 You on - ly are the Mak - er of all things near and far. 3 We thank you, then, Cre - a - tor, for all things bright and good, but it is fed and wa - tered by God's al - might - y hand. You paint the way - side flow - er, you light the eve - ning star. the seed-time, and the har - vest, our life, our health, our food. God sends the snow in win - ter, the warmth to swell the grain, The winds and waves o - bey you, by you the birds are fed; Ac - cept the gifts we of - fer for all your love im - parts, the breez - es, and the sun - shine, and soft re - fresh - ing rain. much more to us, your chil - dren, you give our da - ly bread. and what you most would wel - come: our hum - ble thank - ful hearts. All good gifts a - round us are sent from heav'n a - bove. We thank you, God, we thank you, God, for all your love.
