

All things bright and beautiful

Text: Cecil F. Alexander, Hymns for Little Children, 1848, alt.

Music: 17th cent. English Traditional; adapt. Martin Shaw, 1915

ROYAL OAK 76.76 with refrain

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a common time signature. The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with some phrases spanning across bar lines. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at various points: F# (first measure), B (second measure), C# (third measure), F# (fourth measure), G#m (fifth measure), C#7 (sixth measure), and F# (seventh measure). The lyrics are written below the staff, with some words hyphenated across lines. The score includes a refrain section starting with '1 Each lit - tle flow'r that o - pens, each lit - tle bird that sings,' and ending with 'God made their glow - ing col - ors, God made their ti - ny wings. the sun - set, and the morn - ing that bright-ens up the sky; the ripe fruits in the gar - den, God made them ev - 'ry one. how great is God Al - might - y, who has made all things well.' The score concludes with a double bar line and the word 'Fine'.
