

The day you gave us, Lord

Text: John Ellerton, 1870

Music: Clement C. Scholefield, 1874

ST. CLEMENT 98.98

The musical score is written for a single voice part in treble clef, with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 3/4 time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with many notes beamed together in groups of four or six. The lyrics are arranged in four systems, each corresponding to a line of the musical staff. The first system includes a four-part setting with numbered parts 1 through 4. The second system continues the melody with the lyrics 'the dark - ness falls at your re - quest. while earth rolls on - ward in - to light, each dawn leads on an - oth - er day, like earth's proud king - doms pass a - way.' The third system continues with 'To you our morn - ing hymns as - cend - ed; through all the world its watch is keep - ing, the voice of prayer is nev - er si - lent, Your king - dom stands and grows for - ev - er,'. The fourth system concludes with 'your praise shall sanc - ti - fy our rest. and nev - er rests by day or night. nor do the prais - es die a - way. un - til there dawns your glo - rious day.'

1 The day you gave us, Lord, is end - ed;
2 We thank you that your church, un - sleep - ing
3 As o - ver con - ti - nent and is - land
4 So be it, Lord, your throne shall nev - er,
the dark - ness falls at your re - quest.
while earth rolls on - ward in - to light,
each dawn leads on an - oth - er day,
like earth's proud king - doms pass a - way.
To you our morn - ing hymns as - cend - ed;
through all the world its watch is keep - ing,
the voice of prayer is nev - er si - lent,
Your king - dom stands and grows for - ev - er,
your praise shall sanc - ti - fy our rest.
and nev - er rests by day or night.
nor do the prais - es die a - way.
un - til there dawns your glo - rious day.
