

This joyful Eastertide

Text: George R. Woodward, 1894

Music: Dutch traditional, David's Psalmen, 1685

VRUECHTEN 67.67 with refrain

arr. Charles Wood, 1902

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in 3/2 time. It features a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The score is divided into six systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The first system includes three verses of the hymn. The second system continues the lyrics. The third system begins with 'Had Christ, who once was slain, ne'er burst his three-day pris - on,'. The fourth system continues with 'our faith had been in vain. But now hath Christ a - ris - en, a -'. The fifth system begins with 'ris - en, a - ris - en, a - ris - en.' and includes a repeat sign. The sixth system continues the refrain. The piano accompaniment consists of a steady bass line and a more active treble line with various chords and melodic fragments.
