

All things bright and beautiful

Text: Cecil F. Alexander, Hymns for Little Children, 1848, alt.

Music: 17th cent. English Traditional; adapt. Martin Shaw, 1915

ROYAL OAK 76.76 with refrain

The musical score is written for a single voice part in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. Chord symbols (G, C, D, Am, D7, Em) are placed above the staff to indicate the harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are divided into four lines, with the first line ending in a comma and the second line ending in a period. The third line is a refrain, indicated by a '1' in the first measure. The fourth line is the final line of the hymn, ending with a double bar line. The word 'Fine' is written at the end of the second line of the score.
