ES IST EIN ROS' 76.76.676

Music: Michael Praetorius, 1609

The musical score is written for a single voice part on a treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a range of approximately two octaves. The lyrics are printed below the staff, with line numbers 1, 2, and 3 indicating different versions of the text. The score is divided into four systems, each with a new staff. The first system contains the first line of lyrics, the second system the second line, the third system the third line, and the fourth system the fourth line. The lyrics are: 1 Lo, how a Rose e'er bloom - ing from ten - der stem has sprung! 2 I - sa - iah 'twas fore - told it, the Rose I have in mind. 3 Flow - er, whose fra-grance ten - der with sweet-ness fills the air, Of Jes - se's lin - eage com - ing as saints of old have sung.
