The first system of the musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: 'Tis a gift to be sim-ple, 'tis a gift to be free, 'tis a gift to come down where we ought to be.

The second system of the musical score continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: And when we find our - selves in the place just right 'twill be in the val - ley of love and de - light.

This musical system consists of a treble and a bass staff, both in G major (one flat). The treble staff features a melody with eighth and quarter notes, including a slur over the first two notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, aligned with the notes.

When true sim - pli-ci-ty is gained, to bow and to bend we will not be a-shamed;

This musical system continues the hymn with the same key signature. The treble staff melody includes various note values and rests, with some notes beamed together. The bass staff continues the accompaniment. The lyrics are aligned with the treble staff.

to turn, turn, will be our de-light, till by turn-ing, turn-ing we come round right.
