WIR PFLÜGEN 76.76 D with refrain

Music: Johann A. P. Schulz, 1800

1 We plow the fields and scat - ter the good seed on the land,
2 You on - ly are the Mak - er of all things near and far.
3 We thank you, then, Cre - a - tor, for all things bright and good,

but it is fed and wa - tered by God's al - might - y hand.
You paint the way - side flow - er, you light the eve - ning star.
the seed-time, and the har - vest, our life, our health, our food.

God sends the snow in win - ter, the warmth to swell the grain,
The winds and waves o - bey you, by you the birds are fed;
Ac - cept the gifts we of - fer for all your love im - parts, the breez - es, and the sun - shine, and soft re - fresh - ing rain.

much more to us, your chil - dren, you give our da - ly bread.
and what you most would wel - come: our hum - ble thank - ful hearts.

All good gifts a - round us are sent from heav'n a - bove.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves, a treble staff and a bass staff, both in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps: F# and C#). The time signature is 4/4. The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass line is in the bass staff. The lyrics are: "We thank you, God, we thank you, God, for all your love." The music features a simple, hymn-like melody with a mix of quarter, eighth, and half notes. There are some rests and a double bar line at the end of the piece. The lyrics are placed between the two staves, aligned with the notes.

We thank you, God, we thank you, God, for all your love.
