1 A-maz-ing grace! how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me!

This musical system consists of a treble and a bass staff, both in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. The treble staff features a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The lyrics are centered between the two staves.

I once was lost, but now am found, was blind, but now I see.

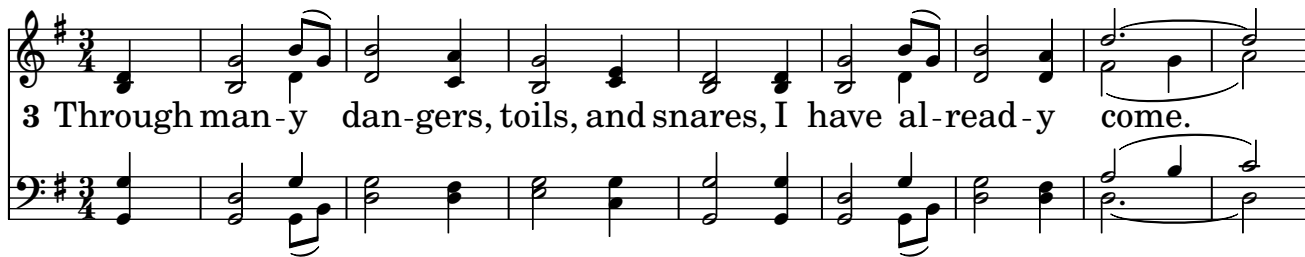

This musical system continues the hymn with the same treble and bass staff arrangement. The melody in the treble staff concludes with a double bar line. The lyrics are centered between the two staves.

2 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears re - lieved.

This musical system consists of a treble and a bass staff. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/4 time signature. The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with a final phrase of two half notes. The bass staff begins with a bass clef, the same key signature, and time signature. It provides a harmonic accompaniment using chords and single notes, with a final phrase of two half notes. The lyrics are centered between the two staves.

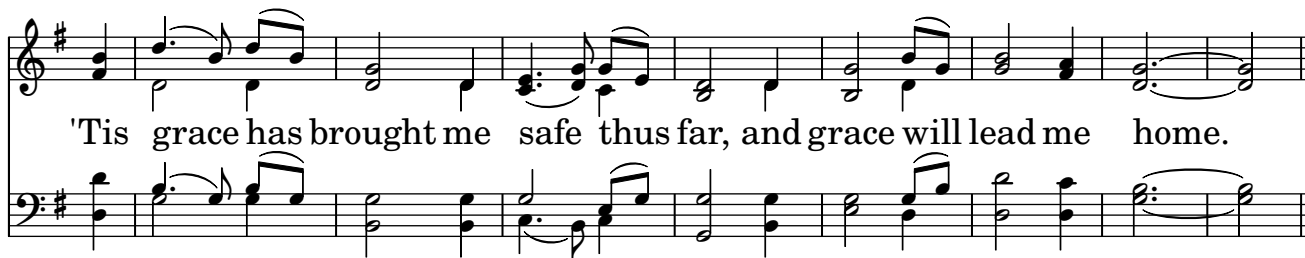

How pre - cious did that grace ap-pear the hour I first be - lieved.

This musical system continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The treble staff features a melodic line with eighth and quarter notes, ending with a double bar line. The bass staff provides a supporting harmonic line with chords and single notes, also ending with a double bar line. The lyrics are centered between the two staves.
