arr. Claude Goudimel, 1565

The musical score is written for a single voice part on a treble clef staff. The key signature has four flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat, D-flat), and the time signature is 12/4. The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with some rests. The lyrics are written below the staff, aligned with the notes. The score is divided into four systems, each with two lines of lyrics. The first system starts with a '1' and the second with a '2', indicating two different versions of the first line of the hymn. The score ends with a double bar line.
