

Christ the Lord is risen today

Text: Charles Wesley, 1739, alt.

Music: anon, Lyra Davidica, 1708

EASTER HYMN 77.77 with alleluias

The musical score is written for four voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in 4/4 time, key of B-flat major. It consists of four systems of music, each with a vocal line and a corresponding bass line. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line, and chord symbols are placed above the staff. The first system includes a four-part setting of the first line of the hymn, followed by a single melodic line for the alleluia. The second system continues the four-part setting with the second line of the hymn, followed by another alleluia. The third system continues with the third line of the hymn, followed by a third alleluia. The fourth system concludes with the fourth line of the hymn, followed by a final alleluia. The score is written in a clear, legible font, with the lyrics in a smaller font size than the musical notation.
