

Come, ye thankful people

Text: Henry Alford, 1844

Music: George J. Elvey, 1858

ST. GEORGE'S WINDSOR 77.77 D

The musical score is written for a single voice part on a treble clef staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 2/2. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with some rests. The lyrics are printed below the staff, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across notes. The score is divided into two systems, each with two staves of music. The first system contains the first two lines of the hymn, and the second system contains the next two lines. The lyrics are as follows:

1 Come, ye thank - ful peo - ple, come, raise a song of har - vest home:
2 All the world is but a field, giv - en for a fruit - ful yield;
fruit and crops are gath - ered in, safe be - fore the storms be - gin;
wheat and tares to - geth - er sown, here for joy or sor - row grown:
God, our Mak - er, will pro - vide for our needs to be sup - plied;
first the blade, and then the ear, then the full corn shall ap - pear;
come to God's own tem - ple, come, raise a song of har - vest home.
God of har - vest, grant that we whole - some grain and pure may be.
