Harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906, alt.

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in 4/4 time, using a treble clef and a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with some phrases spanning across bar lines. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at the beginning of each measure or phrase. The lyrics are arranged in three systems, with three verses of text aligned under the corresponding musical notes. The first system covers the first two lines of the first verse. The second system covers the third and fourth lines. The third system covers the fifth and sixth lines. The fourth system covers the seventh and eighth lines. The score concludes with a double bar line at the end of the eighth line.
