

In our day of thanksgiving

Text: William H. Draper, 1916

Music: Richard Strutt, 1925

ST. CATHERINE'S COURT 13.12.13.11

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in 3/4 time, featuring a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with a final double bar line at the end of the fourth line. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at various points: D-flat at the beginning, G-flat and D-flat at the end of the first line, D-flat and B-flat minor at the start of the second line, D-flat, E-flat, and A-flat in the middle of the second line, D-flat and F at the start of the third line, B-flat minor at the end of the third line, D-flat/A-flat, D-flat, A-flat, and D-flat at the start of the fourth line. The lyrics are written below the staff, with some words hyphenated across lines.

1 In our day of thanks - giv - ing one psalm let us of - fer
2 In the morn - ing of life, and at noon, and at eve - ning, for the saints who be - fore us have found the re - ward;
they were gath - ered to heav'n from our wor - ship be - low;
when the sha - dow of death fell up - on them, we sor - rowed,
but not be - fore God's love at the font and the al - tar, but now we re - joice that they rest in the Lord had clothed them with grace for the way they should go.

3. Common stones that have echoed their praises are holy,
and the dust of the ground
where their feet have once trod;
yet in this place confessed
they were stargers and pilgrims, and still they were seeking the city of God.

4. Sing praise, then, and thanks that God's love here has found them
whose journey is ended,
whose perils are past;
they believed in the light;
and its glory is round them,
where the clouds of earth's sorrows are lifted at last.
