arr. William H. Monk, 1868

The musical score is written for a two-part setting (Soprano and Bass) in 2/2 time, with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The melody is primarily in the soprano part, with the bass part providing harmonic support. The score is divided into four systems, each with a key signature change indicated above the staff: B, G#m, B, E, F#, B; G#m, B, E, F#, B; F#, B, F#; and B, G#m, B, E, F#, B. The lyrics are arranged in three parts, with the first part having three verses. The first verse begins with '1 I sing the might - y pow'r of God, that made the moun-tains rise,'. The second verse begins with '2 I sing the good-ness of the Lord, that filled the earth with food.' The third verse begins with '3 There's not a plant or flow'r be - low, but makes thy glo - ries known,'. The lyrics continue through the second system: 'that spread the flow - ing seas a - broad and built the loft - y skies. God formed the crea-tures with a word, and then pro-nounced them good. and clouds a - rise, and tem-pests blow, by or - der from thy throne.' The third system continues: 'I sing the wis - dom that or - dained the sun to rule the day. Lord, how thy won - ders are dis-played, wher - e'er I turn my eye, While all that bor - rows life from thee is ev - er in thy care,'. The fourth system concludes with: 'The moon shines full at God's com - mand and all the stars o - bey. if I sur - vey the ground I tread, or gaze up - on the sky! there's not a place where we can flee but God is pres - ent there.'
