Music: 17th cent. English Traditional; adapt. Martin Shaw, 1915

The musical score is written for a single voice part in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of four systems of music. The first system contains the first two lines of the hymn. The second system contains the next two lines. The third system contains the next two lines, with the first line of this system being a four-part setting (1-4). The fourth system contains the final line of the hymn. Chord symbols (G, C, D, Am, D7, Em) are placed above the notes to indicate the harmonic structure. The lyrics are written below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across notes. The score ends with a double bar line and the word 'Fine'.
