

I vow to thee, my country

Text: Cecil Spring-Rice, 1922

Music: Adapted from The Planets, Gustav Holst, 1925

THAXTED 13.13.13 D

The musical score is written for a single voice in 3/4 time, with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with some measures containing rests. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at the beginning of each measure. The lyrics are written below the staff, with some words hyphenated across measures. The score consists of six staves of music, each with a corresponding line of lyrics. The first line of lyrics includes a vocal entry for two parts: '1 I' and '2 And'. The music concludes with a double bar line.

1 I vow to thee, my coun - try, all earth-ly things a - bove, 2 And there's an-oth - er coun - try I've heard of long a - go, en - tire and whole and per - fect, the ser-vice of my love:
most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
the love that asks no ques - tion, the love that stands the test, we may not count her ar - mies, we may not see her King;
that lays up-on the al - tar the dear-est and the best;
her for - tress is a faithful heart, her pride is suf - fer - ing;
the love that nev - er fal - ters, the love that pays the price, and soul by soul and sil - ent - ly her shin-ing bounds in - crease, the love that makes un - daunt - ed the fin - al sac - ri - fice.
and her ways are ways of gen - tle - ness and all her paths are peace.
