1 This joy-ful Eas-ter-tide, a - way with sin and sor - row!

The first line of the musical score is written in 2/2 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It consists of a treble and a bass staff. The treble staff contains the melody, which begins with a quarter note G4, followed by a half note F#4, and then a series of eighth and quarter notes. The bass staff provides harmonic support with chords and single notes. The lyrics are placed below the treble staff, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across measures. The final measure of the line features a long note in the treble staff, which is circled, and a corresponding long note in the bass staff.

My love, the cru - ci - fied, hath sprung to life this mor - row.

The second line of the musical score continues the melody and harmony from the first line. It maintains the same 2/2 time signature and key signature. The treble staff melody continues with a similar rhythmic pattern, ending with a long note circled in the final measure. The bass staff continues with harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are aligned with the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across measures. The final measure of the line features a long note in the treble staff, which is circled, and a corresponding long note in the bass staff.
