The musical score is written on a single staff in 2/2 time, with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody is simple and folk-like, with a mix of quarter and half notes. The lyrics are written below the staff, with three verses of text. The first verse is the most prominent, and the second and third verses are indented. The score ends with a double bar line.

1 I am a poor way-far-ing stran-ger a - trav-lin' through this world of woe,
2 I know dark clouds will gath-er round me, I know my path - way's rough and steep,
3 I'll soon be free from ev - 'ry tri - al. This form will rest be - neath the sod.
yet there's no sick - ness, toil or dan-ger in that bright world to which I go.
but gold - en fields lie out be-fore me, where wear - y eyes no more shall weep.
I'll drop the cross of self-den - i - al, and en - ter in my home with God.
I'm go-ing there to see my fa - ther, I'm go - ing there no more to roam;
I'm go-ing there to see my moth-er, She said she'd meet me when I come;
I'm go-ing there to see my sav - ior, to sing his praise for-ev - er - more;
I'm just a - go - in' o-ver Jor-dan, I'm just a - go - in' o-ver home.
