

O God, in restless living

Text: Harry Emerson Fosdick, 1931

Music: Edward F. Rimbault, 1867

RUTHERFORD 76.76.76.75

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, key of D major (three sharps), and 2/2 time. It consists of four systems of music, each with a staff and four lines of lyrics. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at the beginning of each measure. The lyrics are arranged in four columns, corresponding to the four lines of text. The first system has four lines of lyrics, the second has four, the third has four, and the fourth has four. The score ends with a double bar line.

E B C#m A E A B

1 O God in rest - less liv - ing we lose our spir - it's peace.
2 Teach us, be - yond our striv - ing, the rich re - wards of rest
3 Re - cep - tive make our spir - its, our need is to be still.
4 We grow not wise by strug - gling, we gain but things by strain.

B7 E B7/F# E F#m/A E B E

Calm our un - wise con - fu - sion, bid thou our clam - or cease.
Who does not live se - rene - ly is nev - er deep - ly bless'd.
As dawn fades flick - 'ring can - dle, so dim our anx - ious will.
We cease to wa - ter gar - dens when comes thy plen - teous rain.

E A Am E A Am E

Let anx - ious hearts grow qui - et, like pools at eve - ning still,
O tran - quil, ra - diant Sun - light, bring thou our lives to flow'r,
Re - veal thy ra - diance through us, thine am - ple strength re - lease.
O, beau - ti - fy our spir - its in rest - ful - ness from strife,

E A E B7/F# E B7 E

till thy re - flect - ed heav - ens all our spir - its fill less wea - ried with our ef - fort, more a - ware of pow'r.
Not ours, but thine the tri - umph in the pow'r of peace.
en - rich our souls in se - cret with a - bun - dant life.