

We plow the fields and scatter

Text: Matthias Claudius, 1782
tr. Jane M. Campbell, 1861, alt.
WIR PFLÜGEN 76.76 D with refrain

Music: Johann A. P. Schulz, 1800

The musical score is written for a single voice part in treble clef, with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a mix of quarter, eighth, and half notes. The lyrics are printed below the staff, with three verses of text provided for each line of music. The first verse is '1 We plow the fields and scatter the good seed on the land,'. The second verse is '2 You on - ly are the Mak - er of all things near and far.' The third verse is '3 We thank you, then, Cre - a - tor, for all things bright and good,'. The lyrics continue across the staves, with the final line being 'We thank you, God, we thank you, God, for all your love.'

1 We plow the fields and scat - ter the good seed on the land,
2 You on - ly are the Mak - er of all things near and far.
3 We thank you, then, Cre - a - tor, for all things bright and good,
but it is fed and wa - tered by God's al - might - y hand.
You paint the way - side flow - er, you light the eve - ning star.
the seed-time, and the har - vest, our life, our health, our food.
God sends the snow in win - ter, the warmth to swell the grain,
The winds and waves o - bey you, by you the birds are fed;
Ac - cept the gifts we of - fer for all your love im - parts,
the breez - es, and the sun - shine, and soft re - fresh - ing rain.
much more to us, your chil - dren, you give our da - ly bread.
and what you most would wel - come: our hum - ble thank - ful hearts.
All good gifts a - round us are sent from heav'n a - bove.
We thank you, God, we thank you, God, for all your love.
